Memory Verse

Romans 5:12

Wherefore, as by one man
sin entered into the world,
and death by sin; and so
death passed upon all men,
for that all have sinned:

Chorus of the Week: Number 83

Tune: Stand Up stand up for Jesus

Salvation! Oh, salvation! Endearing precious sound,
Shout, shout the word "salvation"
To earth's remotest bound.
Salvation for the guilty, salvation for the lost;
Salvation for the wretched, the sad and sorrow tossed.

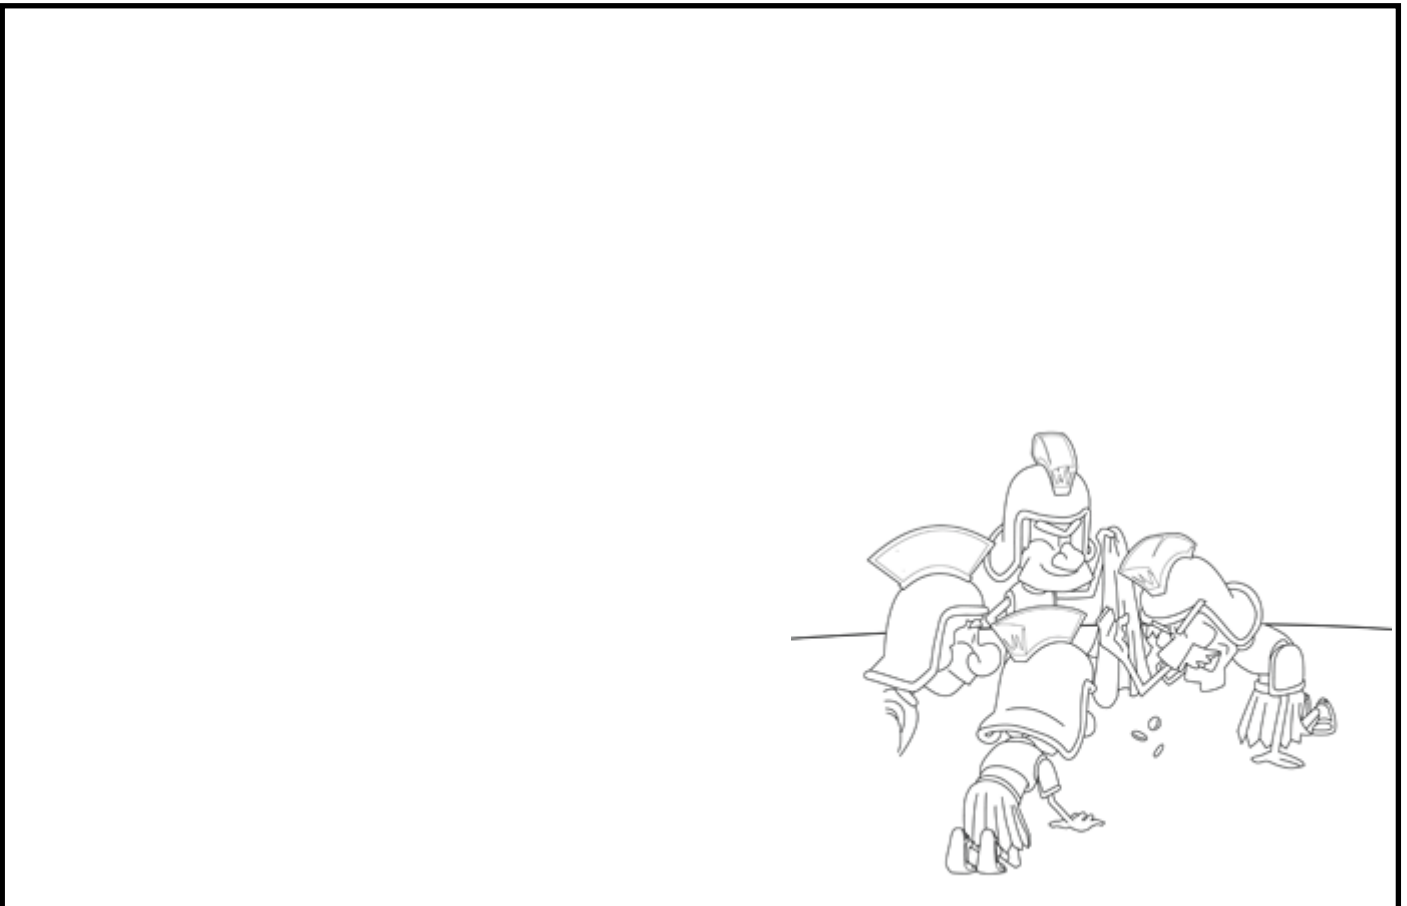

Salvation for the aged, salvation for the young;
Salvation e'en for children, proclaim with joyful tongue;
Salvation for the wealthy, salvation for the poor;
Salvation for the lowly, e'en life for evermore.

Story Time

It was a beautiful sunny day in April and Mum had a great idea.

"Let's do some spring cleaning," she said.

Spring cleaning is hard work, but it also can be fun. The winter is over and we can get rid of all the dust and cobwebs, and find all the things that we thought we had lost.

After a long day, the windows were shining, the floors were washed and everywhere was gleaming. Everyone had worked hard and they were getting hungry.

"I'm too tired now to make dinner for us all," said Mum. "We will get a pizza and chips at the takeaway, and as a special treat we will open one of those old boxes in the attic."

That news was greeted with cheers, and while Dad went to get the takeaway, Mum brought the box down from the attic.

"This box came from your great-great-uncle's house," said Mum. "Let's see what's in it".

There were some old notebooks, a really old pen with a nib that needed to be dipped into an ink bottle, a metal box full of buttons and, right at the bottom, was a Bible. Great-great-uncle's name was in the bible and a date, 1925. There were no other marks on it. The Bible was spotless, with a beautiful black leather cover and shiny gold-edged pages.

"Oh, it's lovely," said Bobby. "So perfect after all these years".

But then he noticed Mum's face; she looked sad.

"What's wrong?" he asked.

"Well," said Mum, "It's good to see a well cared-for Bible, but it's better to see a well used Bible. The Bible is God's word. It tells us all we need to know about Him."

It is good to have a Bible. Some children haven't got one. We should read our Bible and obey it. We aren't supposed to keep our Bibles hidden away in a box. Psalm 119 has lots to say about how precious the Bible is. One thing it says is:

"Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path."

Psalm 119:105
