

Mr. Morris Carl Spicer

October 12, 1950 - December 16, 2018

Morris Carl "Bo" Spicer was born on October 12, 1950 in Mitchell County, Georgia to the late Major Spicer and the late Ella Mae Sapp Spicer. Morris transitioned from his earthly home on Sunday, December 12, 2018.

Morris was a member of Saco Baptist Church in Cotton, Georgia; and he served on the Deacon Board.

He enjoyed watching television, yard work, grilling, attending church and family gatherings.

He was preceded in death by his parents; and brothers John Henry Davenport and James Davenport.

He leaves to cherish his memories his wife Georgia Spicer of Moultrie, Georgia; sons, Adrian Herring (Wanda) and Demond Herring both of Moultrie, Georgia; daughters, Toni Herring and Shondale Spicer both of Moultrie, Georgia; brothers, Hope Davenport of Youngstown, Ohio, Kenneth Spicer (Sherry) of Tallahassee, Florida, Robert Spicer (Mary) of Sale City, Georgia, Fred Spicer (Barbara) of Pelham, Georgia; grandchildren, Contarious Herring, Janiyha Madison, Shambrial Herring, Derrick Madison, Jr., Koytez Jackson, Sykeria Herring, Denzel Haynes, Jaylen Spicer, Devin Herring and Yasmine Williams; sister-in-law, Mary Davenport of Pelham, Georgia; special cousin John Williams of Albany, Georgia; special friends, Freddie Fann of Pelham, Georgia; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Cemetery

NEW HOPE CEMETERY #1

PELHAM, GA, 31779

Comments

“ May the peace of God keep the Spicer family strong. I remember Morris always smiling. RIP Morris. Linda Hobbs Hagan

Linda Hagan - January 05, 2019 at 08:29 AM