

Mrs. Jean Fulford

November 28, 1927 - April 27, 2020

Jean Fulford, 92, passed away peacefully at home early Monday morning, April 27, 2020. She was born Emogene Pear in Malone, Florida, on Nov. 28, 1927. She moved to Plant City with her husband, Charlie S. Fulford, in 1946. She earned her B.S. from Florida Southern College and her M.S. and Ed.S. from Appalachian State University. She taught at Jackson Elementary in Plant City for 25 years. Mrs. Fulford was a Christian and enjoyed attending Knights Baptist Church with her family. She also liked to garden, read, cook, shop, and be with her family.

She was preceded in death by her husband, three sisters, and two brothers. She is survived by one sister in Arkansas and her two daughters, Faye Boone (Floyd, dec'd) and Barbara Dykes (Terry, dec'd). She is also survived by three grandchildren--Julie Daech (Douglas), Charlie Boone (Lynette), and Sam Dykes, (Joy). Her six great-grandchildren and numerous relatives were dearly loved by her.

Due to the Coronavirus and imposed restrictions, there will be no immediate services as she is laid to rest in Memorial Park Cemetery. A future, private family celebration-of-life will be held to honor her. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to a charity of your choice.
